Need help but don't know where to start?

The Women's Information Service (WIS) is a free and confidential service providing information and referrals to South Australian women. Get in touch with us online, on the phone or in person.

You can talk to us about:

- family and relationships
- domestic and family violence
- education and training
- health and wellbeing
- housing and accommodation options
- financial matters
- women's groups and events or anything else that's on your mind.

Our services

- Information Phone Line
- Family Court Support
- Volunteer Program
- SMS Call Back Service
- Rural Phone Link Up Service
- Free Internet Access
- Tax Help (July to October)
- Ombudsman Outreach (10am to 12pm, last Thursday of each month)
- Financial Counsellor (first and third Wednesday of each month)

Where to find us

Ground Floor
101 Grenfell Street, Adelaide

We are across the road from Regent Arcade, just a short walk from Rundle Mall.

Our opening hours are 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday.

There is a wide range of information, free internet and our friendly and knowledgeable staff are ready to help you. Come in for a tea or coffee and speak with a team member.

WIS Havens

Located throughout South Australia, WIS Havens are local safety hubs to support women and their children experiencing domestic, family and sexual violence. Trained volunteers can provide confidential information and referrals to appropriate services.

To find your local hub, visit:

Volunteer with us

Make a difference to the lives of South Australian women and become a WIS volunteer.

Choose from a range of areas including our Grenfell Street shopfront, the WIS Havens, Family Court Support or Children's Centres throughout the state.

The WIS volunteering program offers comprehensive training, mentoring and support. It's also a great way to share and learn new skills, meet passionate, like-minded people, and build connections in your community.
